DOROTHY MCNEILL ART AWARD

The Dorothy McNeill Art Award is given annually to one open class cultural arts exhibitor at the Iowa County Fair. This special award is given to the artist who best represents the ideals and creativity of Dorothy McNeill. The awards includes a plaque. Dorothy was a life-long Iowa County resident who attended 96 consecutive Iowa County Fairs and earned many blue ribbons on her art exhibits. Dorothy passed away in 2000 and her family established this award in her memory.
